These Roots

They run deep.
 What started as a little seed has grown into something Magnificent.
 Look at these rings
 One, two, three, four
 For generations we've been in the states
 Four generations to grow and cultivate our dreams of freedom for the young ones.
 Our roots have grown into the ground
 Deep and sure as they are bound to the Earth for lifetimes to come.
 Branching off and walking to the beat of their own drum
 Their own dreams and hopes.
 These roots
 They run deep

In our blood and in the stream
The network of generations that have come before.
